

Cigarettes: MEPs oppose renewing EU antismuggling deals with tobacco firms

Press release - Budgetary control – 09-03-2016 - 14:36

A majority of MEPs urged the European Commission not to renew an EU anti-smuggling and anti-counterfeiting deal with Philip Morris International (PMI), which expires in July 2016, in a resolution voted on Wednesday. Instead, they ask it to focus on using EU and international legislative tools to combat smuggling.
